Weekly Rhythm & Learning Routine

This page outlines the general structure of our weeks to provide regular and ongoing learning. Our rhythm is flexible and may change throughout the year to suit our child's needs, interests and opportunities.

OUR LEARNING PHILOSOPHY IN PRACTICE

How our weekly rhythm supports our learning approach and goals.

TYPICAL WEEKLY OVERVIEW

This is an example of how we generally structure our week. Activities may vary.

DAY	MORNING (Core Learning Focus)	MIDDAY (Activities / Learning)	AFTERNOON (Activities / Learning)	EVENING / OTHER (Optional)
TUESDAY
WEDNESDAY
THURSDAY
FRIDAY

REGULAR LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

How we include experiences such as:

- Outdoor learning and nature
- Community activities and volunteering
- Library, museums, excursions and events
- Social connection and group activities
- Life skills and practical learning
- Play, creativity and wellbeing

---

---

---

FLEXIBILITY

How we adapt our routine to suit:

- Our child's energy, interests and learning style
- Opportunities that arise
- Rest, wellbeing and family needs

---

---

---

---

A predictable rhythm with flexibility allows our child to learn, grow and thrive.

Evidence & Review Preparation Log

Victorian homeschool registrations may be selected for review by VRQA. Keeping clear records and samples of learning makes the review process simple and stress-free. Use this log to plan, collect and organise evidence throughout the year.

1. TYPES OF EVIDENCE WE WILL GATHER

Evidence should show what your child is learning, how they are learning and their progress over time.

Work samples
(written work, projects, artwork, worksheets, investigations)

Photos / videos
(activities, projects, experiments, performances)

Conversations
(discussions, reflections, interviews)

Checklists / observations
(skills, milestones, practical tasks)

Journals / learning logs
(thoughts, reflections, reading notes)

Certificates / achievements
(awards, course completion, recognition)

2. EVIDENCE COLLECTION PLAN

Plan what evidence you will collect for each learning area over the year.

VICTORIAN LEARNING AREA	EXAMPLES OF EVIDENCE WE WILL COLLECT	WHEN WE WILL COLLECT IT	WHERE IT WILL BE STORED	NOTES
1. English
2. Mathematics
3. Sciences
4. Humanities and Social Sciences
